Escaping the Hangman and Married Almost Immediately after the Verdict.

[New York Sun.]

AUBURN, N. Y., January 26.—The trial of Edmund J. Hoppin, on a charge of murder, was brought to a close here yesterday. Last Fall he killed Philip S. Proudfit, the faithless lover of his sister. His defense was that Proudfit's villainy had caused the ruin of his sister, and the death, through grief, of his mother; and that these things had made him temporarily insane, so that he was not responsible for his acts at the time of the homicide. The trial lasted four days, and was watched with eager interest by assemblies that frequeutly manifested warm sympathy for the prisoner. The jury retired at 4 o'clock yesterday, and at 7 returned to the courtroom with a verdict of acquittal. This result was greeted with a storm of applause, and the people pressed eagerly forward to shake Hoppin's hands.

At the prisoner's side throughout the trial his sweetheart, Mary Turner, had sat during every session of the court. They were matrimonially engaged, and she had consented that, no matter what the verdict might be, they should be married as soon as possible afterward. On the announcement of the acquittal she rapturously kissed her lover, and was herself kissed by him and many of the women who were around her. The presiding Judge, the District Attorney and the jurymen congratulated the pair, and accompanied them at once to the residence of the Rev. T. J. Allen. Court officers and spectators followed, in numbers sufficient to crowd the parsonage.

"I am confident," said the clergyman, "that I express the sentiments of all your many friends and the voice of the whole people when I say that I rejoice in your acquittal as a triumph of love, truth and justice—a justice written deep in the human heart which cannot be expressed in the language of human law. While I appreciate the position of honor and responsibility sustained by his Honor the Judge, your attorney and counsel, and the jury now present to witness this happy scene, I prize the privilege of plighting your love to one another before God and society, and pronouncing you husband and wife as second to none of these. To pronounce you, sir, a happy husband is as great an honor as to pronounce you acquitted by the Court, and allowed to enjoy life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, the birthright of every American citizen."

The ceremony was followed by a jolly, old-fashioned wedding party.

A correspondent of the Virginia Enterprise, writing from Eureka, speaks of the probable candidates for the Judgeship of this judicial district as follows, viz: "Judge F. C. Cole has an ambition to fill a higher judicial position than he at present holds, and would be willing to accept the nomination for Supreme Judge, if the Democratic Convention would thrust it upon him. He is probably one of the best expounders of law in eastern Nevada, and his decisions have generally been affirmed, but he is not popular and his intercourse with the law has not been of that courteous nature that would endear him to the profession. In the event that he fails in the above direction he will be a candidate for reelection to his present position. There his chances are none of the best, as Judge Rives of Lincoln county is seeking the same honor, and will be backed by his delegates from his own and White Pine county, Which will give him a majority in the convention. W. W. Bishop, a leading lawyer, and withal the strongest man in the district, has been mentioned as the Republican nominee, but declines to run, as his practice is worth more than the salary attached to the District Judgeship. Judge Davenport will probably make the race, which will insure the success of the Democratic opponent."—Pioche Record.

THE MOST UNFORTUNATE MAN EVER BORN.—A Portsmouth man was going East with his wife last week, and the train started off very suddenly while he was talking with his friends. He grabbed hold of the woman chucked her on the train and, jumped after her, and away they went, fifty miles an hour, with his wife shrieking and tearing her hair on the platform, and a women he never saw before was going into high-pressure hysterics in the car, calling him a monster, and yelling "Save Me!" By a terrible mistake he had got hold of the wrong woman, and the conductor, refusing to listen to his explanations, kicked him out of the car, the brakeman chucked him into the ditch, the Sheriff met him before he had got half way back to town and put handcuffs on him, and when at last he got home he saw his business partner holding his wife on his lap and telling her that there men in this world who loved her much better than her faithless husband ever did. He says the next time he travels he will walk.—Reading, Pa., Democrat.

BUYING SHEEP.—The order of things as regards live stock in this country has been somewhat reversed of late years. It is not so very long ago that stock raisers in this section were purchasing cattle and sheep in California; now, California procures those animals from Nevada. Agents of California wholesale butchers and stock dealers have for a couple of months past been picking up all the cattle offered for sale in this vicinity, and now sheep buyers are likewise in the field, purchasing sheep for the San Francisco and Sacramento markets. As the live stock interest is a large one in this county, the purchases now being made by these agents will throw a large amount of money into circulation here, and afford both profit and encouragement to our stock raisers, who have for a long time past labored under the disadvantage of the absence of a market. The demand which now exists for cattle and sheep will greatly stimulate the stock interest, which before was languished.—R. R. Reveille.

THE CITY OF BEAUTIFUL WOMEN SURPRISED.—Among the guests yesterday at the Eutaw House were A. H. Solomon Jr., and Miss Marie Solomon, brother and sister, both of London, and tourists now visiting the leading cities and places of note in the United States. Miss Solomon made a decided sensation at the dinner-table by her extraordinary grace, beauty and elegance. Her dresses and jewelry were of the richest description, but in exquisite good taste, and set off by proportion and features remarkably symmetrical and beautiful. The significance of the circumstance lies in the fact that in a city with an almost world-wide reputation for the beauty of its daughters, a young lady must be unusually handsome to come casually into one of its leading hotels, and in a few hours have not only all the guests—ladies as well as gentlemen—speaking in lavish admiration of her, but also have the circumstance much talked about elsewhere in the city.—Baltimore American, January 15th.

Private Medical Institute.
209, KEARNEY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.
Established in 1854,
For the Permanent Cure of all Special and Chronic Diseases, as also all Female Complaints and Diseases of the Nervous System.
THE IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF human life annually from secret and chronic diseases, caused this old and reliable institution to be established, first in Philadelphia, Penn., in 1850, and afterwards in San Francisco, Cal., in 1854, as a private dispensary, in order to afford the afflicted the best medical and surgical treatment for the above and all other affections and complaints. Consultation at the Institute, or by letter, FREE.
To the Afflicted:
Dr. L. J. Czapkay would most respectfully inform the public of the Pacific coast that, at the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, and hundreds of those unfortunately afflicted with disease, he has reopened his MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE and resumed the practice of his profession. The Doctor would remind all those who are in need of medical aid, that since relinquishing his very extensive and successful practice in San Francisco, he has visited the principal cities in Europe, inspecting diligently the experience of the most learned in the profession, the benefit from which he offers to all in need of his services. Rheumatic affections, chronic catarrh, diseases of the stomach and kidneys, liver complaints, etc., successfully treated. Those who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, physical and mental debility, are assured of a permanent cure. Charges moderate. All communication strictly confidential. Medicines sent by express. Address,

RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

Washoe County Official Press.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA

THURSDAY.....FEBRUARY 7, 1878.

That Report.

As we had expected, the Journal of this morning, in an editorial tries very hard to conciliate and condemn both officers and Grand Jurors at the same time. There is no doubt in our minds of the Journal's hearty desire to color acts of that jury, both publicly and privately, nor, further, that it is only fear which prevents that paper from endorsing the report or disproving it—either of which acts would not consume much time.

We have been informed that the Journal editor volunteers such explanations in private as this: "The motives of that Grand Jury are sufficiently plain to me; seven of the number are defeated candidates, and the other ten want a record." Yet, in the Journal this morning we find these statements: "We did not believe that there were seventeen men in Washoe county who could agree to such a document." "We know of no seventeen men in this county more worthy of public confidence and esteem." "We think their report will have the effect to awaken the people to the perils to which they are exposed, and to call them to a sense of duty they owe themselves." * * * "Hence we must disagree with the inferences therein scattered forth so lavishly." The Journal directly insinuates that the jury did not know the truth of a certain charge which it made, and says that the jury forgot their oaths when they failed to go further in the matter of indictment. The Journal says: "We agree with the Grand Jury in a number of cases, and we think their remarks in regard to the free and easy manner in which county offices are attended to, are for the most part correct," and further on it states, "without fear of successful contradiction, that no county on the Pacific Coast has been better managed."

It is certainly very pleasant and encouraging to the Grand Jurors to know that the Journal says it agrees with them in many cases, but the pleasure is marred somewhat by the painfully apparent fact that the Journal does not agree with them in any particular. The editor does not agree with himself even, as shown by the above editorial quotations, but is trying publicly and privately to manufacture enough public misapprehension to smother the report and deprive it of good effects. In order to do this he chooses to disregard the question as to facts, and takes his stand on what ought to be.

If the Journal doubts the truth of the charges, abundant proof is waiting for him. If he feels aggrieved at the lack of indictments, he can gain redress. If he thinks the jury was too severe, let him prove it. If he thinks they were not severe enough, one manly expression through the columns of his paper will send bench warrants after the objects of his hatred. We do not expect to see him adopt any such course—it being contrary to the motions and orders of his overseers. There are four or five men in this town who virtually control the Journal's opinions, and the Journal's opinions have always been in support of "the man on top." The public will easily see that it is now an indirect attempt to reprove the Gazette for publishing the report, and to force this writer into defending the Grand Jury, a body which needs no defense. Now, we have this to say: We shall do no man an injustice, nor have we done so, but when it comes to the people versus officials, we don't give a continental for all the county officers in the State. We have purposely avoided the discussion of any particular case, because we think the Court has the matter in hand, but if any officer assailed wishes particularly for a discussion of his case, all he has to do is to mention it. Enough to satisfy his appetite will be served up hot or cold, according to his preference.

We hope the Grand Jurors will bear up manfully against the overwhelming displeasure of the Journal, and console themselves with the fact that while in truth calling them unprincipled scoundrels, it admits that they are worthy of confidence and esteem. Should it say anything to hurt you, gentlemen, it will, like any other efficient whitewasher, return and make all things smooth again.

Does Russia Want Peace?

A special from Berlin says that Roumania insists on having the Dobriudja without ceding Bessarabis to Russia. A correspondent at headquarters of the Czarowitch says that three hours before the arrival of news of the armistice, a Russian officer, with a flag of truce, had started for Rustchuk to demand its surrender, and, if refused, to notify the Consuls and other foreigners to leave within twenty-four hours, when the place would have been stormed. The conditions of the armistice, as far as they affect this part of Bulgaria, are that the Turks give up Rustchuk and Silistria, withdrawing the garrisons to Shumla and Verna. Seven days are to be allowed for retirement of the garrisons. On the eighth day they will march into Rustchuk.

Russia rejects the proposal to hold a conference in Vienna or any other great capital. It considers the tranquility of a small town in one of the minor States, and the authority of that would be given to deliberations by the presence of foreign ministers of the Powers, necessary for ensuring a good and practical result. Moreover, Russia believed this would facilitate the speedy disposal by the conference of the important questions it would have to deal with in the interests of lasting peace and humanity.

Russia is organizing reserves on a colossal scale. It is thought if Russia means peace she would not continue such extended preparations. It is known that Denmark and Sweden are both, as rapidly as possible, increasing their armaments and placing themselves on a war footing. It is feared there may be some understanding between Russia, Germany and Italy whose purpose is believed to be hostile to English interests and the peace of Europe. It is certain that the approaching conference will be one of armed and suspicious powers. The outlook is anything but reassuring.

High Water in Sacramento.

Sacramento, Feb. 5.—The levee on the east bank of the Sacramento, a mile and a half below the city, broke at 3 o'clock this morning. This has been a weak place for years, The levee is new in this spot. A wing dam was put in last summer to keep off the current, but the water this morning broke in the new soil. The break will flood all the land between river and the high land on the east for twenty miles down. The city authorities have had men on guard, and had made provisions to fill in three openings on R street levee so as to keep out the back water. At a few minutes past 10 this morning all the fire-alarm bells in the city were sounded, and for a few minutes great consternation prevailed. Reminiscences of the flood of 1862 were brought vividly to mind, but the excitement subsided as soon as it was ascertained that means had been restored to procure extra men to work on the openings at the R street levee. If the force now at work cannot stop the openings at R street, back water may flood the lower part of the city. Beyond this no danger is apprehended.

The Prevailing Storm.

The snow-storm which began on Monday has continued since with but a few hours of intermittent fine weather, and has every appearance of lasting for some time yet. The falling snow is also of a lasting kind, as it is dry and granular. Since Monday fully two feet of snow must have fallen on a level. In places where drifts have accumulated there are banks seven and eight feet high. These are especially seen on the grades and in the canyons.

The storm raged with greatest force this morning, from about six o'clock until noon, when the light was actually obstructed by the descending snow, and the streets were almost deserted. Travel on all the roads is greatly impeded, and some of them are almost impassable. But nobody complains at this state of affairs. It is so long since we have been visited by a genuine Washoe snow-storm that everybody is pleased with it. But the most pleased of all are the mining and millmen and the ranchers. To them this storm betokens a plentiful supply of water with which to run the mills next Summer and to irrigate the crops. This in turn means employment to many who are now idle, and general prosperity not only for the State but for the entire Pacific coast, since a storm such as we are having cannot be merely local, but must be raging in the Sierras as well.—Va. Chronicle.

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR OUR MOLLIE.—New Orleans, Feb. 6th.—The Louisiana Jockey Club, in order to secure the entries of Winters' Mollie McCarty, the famous champion thoroughbred of the Pacific slope, Tenbroeck, Largenteen, McWhirter, Vera Cruz and all the crack racers of the country, have offered a purse of $30,000 for a four-mile heat race, and a purse of $10,000 for a two-mile heat race.

RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

A Heathen on the War-Path.

Last Tuesday morning a Chinese cook, formerly in the employ of Mrs. Charles Courtois, asked that lady to give him eight dollars, which she of course refused to do. Mr. Courtois was at the time in Truckee, and the celestial took advantage of this fact to press his claim. He coolly informed her that if she did not pay him the money by two o'clock yesterday afternoon that he would kill her and her two little children with a knife which he produced. Mr. Courtois returned last night from Truckee and was informed by his wife what had happened but he could not believe that the Chinaman would carry out his threat and only meant to frighten her. During the night someone fired a pistol under his window, but Mr. Courtois fearing that it was the Chinaman attempting to draw him from his room to the outside allowed the discharge to go unheeded. Yesterday afternoon the Chinaman came around as he promised, but the presence of a man produced a change in his determinations. He was taken before Justice Richardson, but there his hitherto fair knowledge of English suddenly left him. The Justice concluded that a nights rest and reflection might refresh his memory of English, so John found storage in the County Jail last night. This afternoon at one o'clock he was brought before Justice R. for trial.

"Don't Mention It."—One evening recently a young man and the lady whom he justly holds in high esteem rode of town two-in-hand to pay obedience to a promise duly made. A slight rain began to fall, but youthful ardor is not to be checked by slight obstacles. The livery team, not mindful of their own judgment, if we may so speak of that faithful animal, the horse, but rather guided by young Pyramus, who it may be presumed was not as attentive to his team as old married men are, turned from the beaten highway and came near stranding the vehicle among the syenitic bowlders near the prison walls. The importance of filling that promise on a dark night became a matter of little sequence, and as the night wind held chilly converse with the buggy trimmings, Thisbe suggested to Pyramus that they return to the burg. Her wish met no dissent, and the genial couple returned to the parental roof. The livery men were placed under oath to maintain inviolate secresy. How, then, did the hungry news reporter get hold of this item? Pyramus talks in his sleep.

Methodist Social.—Last evening the Methodist people had a very pleasant church social. The opening exercises consisted of the following: Recitation, "New Year's Turkey," by Janie Vosburg; song—"Sliding Down Old Grimes' Cellar Door," by T. F. Laycock; select reading—"No Room for the Moneyless Man," by Mrs. Charles Jones; reading—"The Widow's Pig," by Mrs. Carrie Sessions; solo, by Miss Loomis; recitation—"No Excellence Without Labor," by Frank Stoddard; temperance poem about Old Cyclop," by Mr. Gray; dialogue—"Aunt Peggy's Courtship." Then followed a chance to deposit the widow's mite, and after that the refreshments, which of course were good. Next social two weeks' hence.

Needed Crosswalk.—A stone crosswalk is very much needed from Smith's Academy of Music to the opposite side of the street. Such a walk will cost from $75 to $100, and would be an accommodation to every citizen of Reno, and especially Mr. Smith, the owner of the hall, and those who reside on North Center street. Mr. Smith says he will give $30 toward the construction of this stone crossing. Mr. Webster will give some ten dollars. Others signify their willingness to contribute. Can't some one head this walk business, and insure the building of a much needed crossing?

Opera Troupe.—Piper's New Opera House Company will present that beautifull drama "East Lynne" tomorrow night at Smith's Academy of Music. At the conclusion of that play the musical burletta entitled "Jenny Lind" will be presented. Matinee Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. "Marble Heart" Saturday evening. The troupe is a large one, and the lays announced are such as will interest everyone.

S-O-OTHING SYRUP!

THE GAZETTE DID IT!

THAT EXTRA TROUBLES US!

Russian Salve is what WE want!

TAXPAYERS MUST NOT KNOW THE TRUTH!

WE Must Fix Public Opinion!

O-I-L FOR THE TROUBLED WATERS:

Not another seventeen like 'em in the County.
"No seventeen men more worthy of confidence and esteem."

From first to last there is nothing but apologies.
"Why didn't you indict?"

We do not for an instant believe that any County officer—
"We agree with the Grand Jury in many cases."

Hence we must disagree with the inferences therein.

The Grand Jury calls the officers thieves, but gives no proof.
I call the Grand Jury villians, and give no proofs, and that squares it.

If they knew, they forgot their Oaths.
"It is generally believed, cleary in violation of law."

They had no foundation in fact for what they did.
"We do not believe for an instant that they had any ulterior motive."

"No County on the Coast has been better managed."
[$18,000 per year in excess of an ample income.]

Jottings.

The roads leading out of town are very muddy, and in some places nearly impassable.

The storm now seems to be broken, and the indications favor pleasant weather.

The North California Mining Company have levied an assessment of twenty-five cents per share.

District Court will be in session next Saturday.

The Truckee has thus far only been slightly effected by the late rain and snow.

The pupils of the Gold Hill Central School are teaching themselves telegraphy.

The Gold Hill schools have a large attendance and are progressing finely.

The Mayor of Virginia City will make his next annual report 1,252 pages.

The Journal this morning insinuates that there are only thirteen Grand Jury men who stand by their report. We ask the plersure of being counted one of the thirteen.

The next party of the Riverside Club will be held to-morrow evening at Kimble Hall. It will not be expected of any one to dress for a calico party.

Washoe has been called the model county, and our cotemporaries seem to be very much disappointed at the showing made in the recent Grand Jury report. Many of the citizens of this county are also disappointed at the tenor of the report.

The United States Grand Jury have dismissed the charge against Jack Leathers the Pyramid disturber.

Don't put your personal opinion out as standard money when you can easily test it by proof. It is better to be sure than to be strongly of the opinion.

A mild-mannered scribbler, who signs himself X in the Journal, says, after admitting everything claimed by the Grand Jury report, that "God created man a little less than the angels, and they have been known to err, if we may believe Milton."

Now, dear, you failed to state whether the angels erred or the men, but there is no necessity for going back to Milton. We can prove the point by a simple reference to the senseless driveling of your own sweet self in this morning's Journal.

Those members of the jury who admit, according to the Journal, that they had no show in the jury report, are, according to our opinion, not good citizens so much as they are cowards and trucklers, nor do we believe that any member of that jury admitted such a thing.

New Barber Shop.—Joe Lopez can be found on the corner of Commercial Row and Virginia Street, where good work in the tonsorial line is guaranteed. He invites all his friends to call. 12-6tf

Slightly Mistaken.—The Reno Gazette, in an article on the commutation of Rover's sentence, says: "The press of Humboldt and Elko counties favor the execution of Rover." The Gazette is mistaken as to Humboldt. The Silver State does not favor the execution of Rover or anybody else, but it does believe, and that belief is founded on evidence, that J. W. Rover is guilty of the murder of I. N. Sharp.—Silver State.

The County Clerk hastens into print this morning to make sophistical answers to the charges made against him by the Grand Jury. That officer made his most appropriate answer when he exhibited the Treasurer's receipts for the delinquent court fees in question.

Live Weight of Cattle.

How it May be Estimated Approximately by Measurement.

The following from the Live Stock Journal for ascertaining approximately the live weight of cattle by measurement, will be interesting to cattle men:

There are several methods in use for ascertaining the weight by measurement of the body, and when the measurement is correctly taken the result is generally pretty accurate. The method is to measure with a tape line from the top of the shoulder to the root of the tail, which gives the length; then measure around the body immediately behind the fore legs, which gives the girth; and on consulting a table calculated by the corresponding figures of the length and girth, the product will give the net weight. Several rules exist: For example, suppose an ox is 5 feet in length and 7 feet in girth. Multiply the square of the girth in inches by the length in inches, and divide the sum by 7,238; and the quotient multiplied by 14, is the weight in pounds. In using the tape it should be kept stretched in taking the length and girth. Accurate results would certainly be obtained were the animal always perfect in form, which seldom is, the fore and hind quarters being frequently unequal and their conditions various. The judgment is called into exercise in making allowances for such differences. The animal should stand in exact profile and upon level ground while being measured.

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD,

SO EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS, was first discovered in 1859, by the celebrated French chemist, Mons. D. Be Dainge, who manufactured it into jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Solid Gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878. Read the list.
